

The New York Film/Video Council and Anthology Film Archives present

HOW TO LOOK: CELEBRATING GEORGE C. STONEY

The Filmmaker, Teacher And Media Activist George C. Stoney
Will Be Featured In A Series Of Four Screenings Of His Work

at

Anthology Film Archives
32 Second Avenue, New York

The Programs Are:

All My Babies, Wednesday April 8, 7:30pm

The Police Films, Wednesday April 15, 7:30pm

SPECIAL NYFVC MEMBER ADMISSION AND RECEPTION
FOLLOWING

A Love Affair with New York, Wednesday April
22, 7:30pm

The Lively Arts, Wednesday April 29, 7:30pm

Stoney will be present with specially invited guests to lead a discussion after each program and to remind us that "Films Should Do, Not Just Be."

This Series Has Been Organized By AFA Curator Andrew Lampert

With Mike Hazard, Archivist For The Films Of George Stoney And Director Of A Forthcoming Documentary On His Life And Work.

NYFVC
NEW YORK FILM/VIDEO COUNCIL

RSVP: 212-330-0450

For more information, please call Anthology Film
Archives at (212) 505-5181

Log on to Anthology Film Archives at <http://www.anthologyfilmarchives.org>