The Unforeseen

Saturday, February 16, 2008, 7 p.m.

The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53rd St.

Documentary Fortnight screening prior to Theatrical Release

Laura Dunn's lyrical, beautifully crafted documentary, The Unforeseen examines the environmental sustainability of the American Dream. Using a landmark environmental struggle in Austin, Texas as a microcosm of what's happening in communities across the country today, the film offers a grand meditation on the nature of growth and the unseen forces reshaping the American landscape. 93 min. (USA, 2007). Introduced by the filmmaker.
